ORDER

LEWIS J. LIMAN, United States District Judge:

The Court received a letter from Plaintiff filed on January 23, 2023 stating: “Per your instructions, I am submitting this letter within a week of Defendant’s January 18th amended Motion to Dismiss deadline requesting a second pre-trial conference with the Court and the Defendant.” Dkt. No. 50.

This letter appears to refer to the November 21, 2022 Order of the Court stating: “Defendant to file its motion to dismiss by January 13, 2023. Plaintiff’s opposition is due by February 24, 2023. Defendant’s reply is due by March 10, 2023. If the complaint survives the motion to dismiss, then Plaintiff is to write a letter to the Court within one week of the Court’s decision, requesting that the Court schedule a conference.” Order (Nov. 21, 2022) (emphasis added).

Plaintiff’s request is premature. As stated, the November 21 Order directs Plaintiff to make a request for a conference if the complaint survives the motion to dismiss. Here, however, Defendant’s motion to dismiss has not yet been ruled on; Defendant only filed its motion to dismiss on January 13, 2023 and Plaintiff has not yet filed his opposition. Accordingly,

Plaintiff's request is premature at this stage.

SO ORDERED.
